Visitation Ministry
946-1675

Welcome! If you are new in the parish, please introduce yourself after Mass and arrange to register with us; online at www.ckparish.org or in the office during business hours. We're glad you're here!

Sacrament of Baptism: is scheduled by appointment only; parents must have been registered members of the parish for at least 2 months and must attend a Baptismal Instruction Class offered at 7:00 p.m. the first Wednesday of each month.

Sacrament of the Sick: In the event of serious illness or medical emergency, Anointing and Eucharist may be arranged. Call the parish office during office hours, or the emergency number after hours. Contact the Visitation Ministry Office to arrange for home visits.

Celebration of Christian Funeral: After the death of a loved one, you may contact the Parish Office at your earliest convenience to arrange for a date and time for the funeral liturgy.

Sacrament of Marriage: Engaged couples requesting information about matrimony must contact and meet with one of the priests or deacons at least 4 months before the proposed wedding date and should expect to participate in a marriage preparation program.

Christian Initiation of Adults: Adults requesting information about full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church (the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) may contact the RCIA Coordinator at 371-0994.

Christian Initiation of Children (CIC): We offer a program for older children who have not been baptized or received their First Communion. Call the Religious Education Office at 946-1154 for information.

Sunday Reflection

"Love is the only power that opens hearts to the word of Jesus and to the grace of Redemption."

Homily of John Paul II, May 10, 1999

We have just heard the words of Christ which Saint John has left us in his Gospel. The Lord addressed them to the disciples in the Farewell Discourse before his Passion and Death on the Cross, at the moment when he washed the Apostles' feet. It is virtually his final cry to humanity, with which he gives voice to a burning desire: "That you love one another"!

These words of Christ emanate great power. When He died on the Cross in his terrible Passion, humiliated and abandoned, He showed to the whole world the full meaning and depth of such trials. Watching Christ's agony, the disciples came to realize what it was He had called them to when He said: "Love one another as I have loved you". In recording the event, Saint John would write in his Gospel: "Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end" (13:1). Christ loved us first of all, loved us despite our sinfulness and our human weakness. It was He who ensured that we became worthy of His love which knows no bounds and never ends. It is a love which is absolute and most perfect. Christ has in fact redeemed us with His Precious Blood.

To us too He has taught this love and to us He has entrusted it: "A new commandment I give you" ... this commandment is always pertinent. If we wish to respond to the love of Christ, we must respect its demands always, regardless of time and place: it must be for man a new way, a new seed which renews relations between people. This love makes us... heirs of the divine promises. It ensures that we all become brothers and sisters in the Lord. It makes us of the new People of God, the Church in which we must love Christ and in Him love each other in turn."

This is the true love which shows itself in the Cross of Christ. We must all look to this Cross; towards it we must direct our desires and our efforts. In the Cross, we have the greatest of all models to imitate.

Rummage Sale: Friday and Saturday, June 14 and 15 in the Christ the King Catholic School cafeteria. Please leave donations in the room at the bottom of the church stairs, on the left as you face the church. Thank you for your donations; keep it up! No tires or chemicals, please. For more information, contact Margaret at 946-5782.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

It's easy to recognize evil, complain, and grouse about unfairness. But Jesus encourages optimism: to seek and find love (God), even in evil or pain. Ignatian Spirituality in general and the Spiritual Exercises in specific promote that type of optimism. In a short booklet about love, a Jesuit once wrote, "Love opens our eyes.... It looks for what is lovable, and finds it." The culmination of the Spiritual Exercises, called the Contemplatio, helps us assess our lives in the light of love so we, too, can see the world as God sees it, and learn to love like God.

The SEEL retreat has ended for this session but we begin again in September. To register or to find out more, visit <https://spiritual-exercises.com>, or contact Ellen at info@spiritual-exercises.com

Franciscan Spirituality

Would you like to give more time to God, but wonder how to do that when your life is so busy? Do you long for holiness, and feel a need for support in growing spiritually? Perhaps your heart has been moved by stories of St. Francis of Assisi, or the Peace Prayer attributed to him, and you are seeking that same holy simplicity, true peace and perfect joy? If so, Christ may be calling you to explore the Secular Franciscan life.

We'd be happy to meet with you and to share about our Franciscan journey. Contact Bob Fitzsimmons at bofitzofs@gmail.com, www.tcfran.org, or 521-9387.

Carmelite Corner

Join the Church in praying the following intercessions for Easter Season:

- Lord Jesus, light shining in the darkness, you lead your people into life, and give our mortal nature the gift of holiness, may we spend this day in praise of your glory.
- You have brought a new family into being through water and the Holy Spirit, keep them faithful to their baptism, and bring them to everlasting life.

Reflect on the following portion of Preface V of Easter:

- By the oblation of his Body, he brought the sacrifices of old to fulfillment in the reality of the Cross and, by commending himself to you for our salvation, showed himself the Priest, the Altar, and the Lamb of sacrifice.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
