Shroud of Turin Replica and talk: Friday, Feb. 7, at 7 p.m. at Christ the King.

Don't miss this great opportunity to experience the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ in an unforgettable way. Considered one of the greatest mysteries of our time, the Shroud of Turin continues to amaze and baffle scientists, doctors, historians, artists and theologians. Scientists cannot explain the source of the image which contains photographic and 3-D properties on a cloth centuries old. But is this the actual burial cloth of Jesus Christ?

Bill Wingard, a speaker for the Shroud, will present the case for authenticity that has already been delivered on the east and west coasts including M.I.T., and you can be the judge. Come see a full-size replica of the Shroud and the photographic negative images that sparked an explosion of scientific interest and debate over a century ago. What message does the Shroud have for each of us? Bring others including teens on up and your cameras.

Sunday Reflection

"A bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench..."Is 42:3

This beautiful passage from Isaiah describes our Lord as a gentle healer who holds us tenderly, guarding us with loving care. Jesus knows our hearts, sees every wound, and with gentle love calls us each by name, so that we may be made whole.

None of us have escaped pain in our lives, and many live each day with pain, suffering, anxiety, or sorrow. Jesus also suffered from pain and trauma in His human life. He was abandoned and betrayed: He was beaten, mocked, humiliated, stripped, and crucified. Our Lord knows what we are going through – we are not alone. Jesus suffers with us and for us.

Jesus longs to bring us healing, and one beautiful sign of His gentle and merciful love can be seen in the Divine Mercy image. In this picture, the scars on His hands and feet are visible, and from His wounded heart rays of pure white and red light, representing the blood and the water, flow out to the world, bringing healing and new life to all who trust in Him. The wounds in His hands, His feet, and His heart remain visible even in His glorified Divinity. His scars, like our own, provide strength. Only Jesus, fully Divine and fully human, can heal our deepest sorrows. As Venerable Bishop Fulton Sheen once wrote, "Scarred men come for healing only to scarred Hands! Only a Risen Jesus with scars can understand our hearts."

Find a special place in your home to place a copy of the Divine Mercy image. Anytime you feel worried or afraid, meditate on the image and allow the pure streams of grace and mercy flow from His heart to yours. Let yourself enter into the safety and peace of His presence.

Ask Jesus to heal your broken heart, and help you to forgive those who have hurt you. Place all your trust in Him. Say to Him, "Jesus, I give you my wounded heart." Tell Him about your pain and your desire to be healed. Ask Jesus for all the graces you need. He knows your sorrow, and He loves you more than you can imagine; let Him heal your wounded soul.

Justice and Peace Reflection

The Pax Christi VOW OF NONVIOLENCE

Recognizing the violence in my own heart, yet trusting in the goodness and mercy of God, I vow to practice the nonviolence of Jesus who taught us in the Sermon on the Mount: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons and daughters of God...You have learned how it was said, 'You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy,' but I say to you, 'Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you. In this way, you will be daughters and sons of your Creator in heaven."

- by striving for peace within myself and seeking to be a peacemaker in my daily life;
- by accepting suffering in the struggle for justice rather than inflicting it;
- by refusing to retaliate in the face of provocation and violence;
- by persevering in nonviolence of tongue and heart;
- by living conscientiously and simply so that I do not deprive others of the means to live;
- by actively resisting evil and working nonviolently to abolish war and the causes of war from my own heart and from the face of the earth.

God, I trust in Your sustaining love and believe that just as You gave me the grace and desire to offer this, so You will also bestow abundant grace to fulfill it. Amen.

Spiritual Practices

Please Pray For:

Ignatian Spirituality

During this part of the Spiritual Exercises, prayers ask themselves: what have I done for Christ? What am I doing for Christ? What ought I do for Christ? We explore the history of sin and how even just one choice can have huge consequences. Angels were thrown into hell because of one choice. Adam and Eve were thrown out of the garden because of one choice. Through prayer we realize that the number of sins isn't as important as how much we hurt our loving God, our neighbors, and ourselves. Viewing sin in this context helps us to understand its impact on our lives as well as those around us.

For those who are participating in the Spiritual Exercises this year, our next group meeting will be Saturday, February 8, 2020, 9:00 am to 11 am at Holy Spirit Parish. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>. Alums are always welcome.

Benedictine Spirituality: Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time on Jan. 16 at noon in the parish library. We read and reflect upon the Holy Rule and commentary, and conclude with liturgical prayer. We welcome you as Christ! For more information, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Franciscan Spirituality

Is Christ calling you to explore the Secular Franciscan life? Contact Bob Fitzsimmons at bobfitzofs@gmail.com, www.tcfra.org, or 521-9387.

Carmelite Corner

Ponder the Collect and Eucharistic Prayer Preface for the Baptism of the Lord:

Collect: O God, whose Only Begotten Son has appeared in our very flesh, grant, we pray, that we may be inwardly transformed through him whom we recognize as outwardly like ourselves.

Preface: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

For in the waters of the Jordan you revealed with signs and wonders a new Baptism, so that through the voice that came down from heaven we might come to believe in your Word dwelling among us, and by the Spirit's descending in the likeness of a dove we might know that Christ your Servant has been anointed with the oil of gladness and sent to bring the good news to the poor.

And so, with the Powers of heaven we worship you constantly on earth, and before your majesty without end we acclaim:
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts...
