Stop in and visit the displays of the many ministries active in our parish, see where you could help out, and sign up. High school students, young adults, long-time parishioners – all are welcome!

We'll serve wine, cheese, and appetizers after the Saturday evening Mass, and join Second Sunday Coffee for coffee and donuts Sunday morning. For more information, contact Meggin Sanner at (541) 571-8402 or Nancy Petersen at (509) 539-4866.

Our thanks to Tri-Cities Prep for hosting Second Sunday Coffee!

Welcome Meggin Sanner, our new coordinator for Adult Religious Education programs!

Safety Precautions During Mass: the Bishop's office recommends that parishes lock external doors after Mass begins; ushers will let late-comers in, but we hope to prevent actions by unfriendly visitors. Doors can always be opened from the inside. We are now trying out this procedure.

Sunday Reflection

Fatima Rosary Prayers: Please join us Sunday, Oct. 13 at 1:30 p.m. in our chapel with Deacon Jocson. We'll pray the rosary with adoration honoring the 102nd anniversary of the miracle of the sun in Fatima. We'll conclude with the Divine Mercy chaplet. For more information, contact Susan Ward, 371-0877.

"In all circumstances, give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." 1 Thes 5:18

In today's readings, we hear about the gratitude of two foreigners, Namaan the Aramean and the Samaritan leper, for the gifts of healing they received. But there are nine others who fail to give thanks to the Lord for their healing from leprosy. Many of us might also take for granted God's healing touch in our lives, forgetting to give thanks to God for the small – and large – blessings of each day. If we tend to forget to intentionally "count our blessings," it may be well worth our time to discover the benefits of making a nightly "Examen" as taught by St. Ignatius.

In his book on Marian Consecration, "33 Days to Morning Glory," Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, reintroduces this practice using the word B-A-K-E-R as a reminder:

B is for "blessings." As we prepare for sleep at the end of the day, think back over the little moments of blessing during that day, giving thanks to God for each blessing. We should give thanks even for the crosses of each day, trusting in God to transform our sufferings into good.

A is for "ask" – ask the Holy Spirit for the grace to recognize our sinfulness.

K is for "kill" – recognizing that our sins killed and crucified Jesus, we remember moments of desolation in our day, times when our hearts dropped due to our own sinfulness or the sins of others. This is a time to forgive those that hurt us and to ask forgiveness for our own sins.

E is for "embrace" – allow Jesus to embrace us with His merciful love. Fr. Gaitley recommends spending extra time with this step, thinking of the image of Divine Mercy. By allowing Jesus to console us in this way, we console His Sacred Heart as well.

R is for "resolution" – resolving to take what we've learned from our reflections to try to make tomorrow a better day, one filled with gratitude and kindness.

Gratitude is important for honoring God, and it also has a powerful positive impact on our emotions, helping to lift depression and increase happiness. Making the nightly Examen part of your spiritual practice is a wonderful way to remember to give thanks each day.

Roman Catholic Challenge teams are forming soon:

For more information, and to sign up, contact April Burris at burrisfam1@gmail.com or 946-6856

2019 Ladies Christmas Brunch – If you're interested in helping with the Ladies Christmas Brunch, please contact Louise Mitchell at louise.m.mitchell@gmail.com. We are also seeking a new chair for future years! Hope to hear from you!

Peace and Justice Reflection

From Laudato Si'

We are faced not with two separate crises, one environmental and the other social, but rather with one complex crisis which is both social and environmental. Strategies for a solution demand an integrated approach to combating poverty, restoring dignity to the excluded, and at the same time protecting nature.

Along with the importance of little everyday gestures, social love moves us to devise larger strategies to halt environmental degradation and to encourage a "culture of care" which permeates all of society. When we feel that God is calling us to intervene with others in these social dynamics, we should realize that this too is part of our spirituality, which is an exercise of charity and, as such, matures and sanctifies us.

Laudato Si' Pledge:

I pledge to:

- Pray for and with creation
- Live more simply
- Advocate to protect our common home

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Our culture tells us that without certain things – money, power, success, approval, a good reputation, love, friendship, spirituality, God – we can't be happy, and that happiness is the ultimate goal. Once we believe these falsehoods, we grow over-attached to whatever person or thing we think we can't live without. Almost always, we get angry when we believe someone is standing in the way of our happiness, or we don't get what we want, because we are imprisoned by our attachments. God, on the other hand, reminds us that when we are afraid or anxious, it's because we fear loss of our attachment of not getting our way. To be truly happy, therefore, we must get rid of our attachments. The Spiritual Exercises teach us how.

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) is Saturday, Nov. 9 from 9 to 11 a.m. at Parish of the Holy Spirit. The theme will be the Principle and Foundation. To learn more about SEEL please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>. Alums always welcome!

Franciscan Spirituality

Is Christ calling you to explore the Secular Franciscan life? We'd be happy to meet with you and to share about our Franciscan journey. Contact Bob Fitzsimmons at bobfitzofs@gmail.com, www.tcfran.org, or 521-9387.

Benedictine Spirituality: Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time on Oct. 17 at noon in the parish library. We read and reflect upon the Holy Rule and commentary, and conclude with liturgical prayer. We welcome you as Christ! For more information, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Praying Prefaces to the Eucharistic Prayer (1 of 4)

Pray and ponder the following Preface I of the Sundays in Ordinary Time which Father prays at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer:

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

For through his Paschal Mystery, he accomplished the marvelous deed, by which he has freed us from the yoke of sin and death, summoning us to the glory of being now called a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for your own possession, to proclaim everywhere your mighty works, for you have called us out of darkness into your own wonderful light.

And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory, as without end we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts...
