Sunday Reflection

Shake Off the Dust

Our kitchen floor is at least 35 years old, and it's the ugliest color to come out of the '80s. But it's a good, durable floor, and my husband, bless his heart, guards it like it was a finely finished hardwood imported from Brazil.

Every time the kids track mud and sand across its vinyl surface, he immediately gets down on his hands and knees and lovingly wipes the mess away. I'm too impatient to do this myself — we have kids, so we're going to have a dirty floor, is my attitude. But this is the hill upon which my husband dies. On hands and knees, scraping dirt off an almost 40-year-old floor, he is the silent, long-suffering sentry, and if it kills him, he will keep these floors pristine. He is Gandalf, and the dirt is the Balrog. You shall not pass.

"Shake the dust off your feet." This is what Christ tells his disciples to do when they — and his word — are rejected. Shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them. Why does he say that? It's not an act of dismissal. It's not a thumbed nose or a stuck-out tongue. No, it's an act of caution: Don't bring it with you. Leave it there.

When we walk through the world, we pick up a lot of dirt. Misguided notions, disordered priorities, habits, and desires that we never noticed until we realized they left a trail. We come into a situation intending to do what is right, but somehow it all goes sideways, and we walk away from it with detritus clinging to us in places we don't notice. They wouldn't listen. They'll see, we think. Oh, they'll see. They'll see how right I was. Pride and vengeance hitch a ride on the soles of our feet, and we track them all through the world.

What to do about this? You can be like me with my ugly old floor. You can shrug your shoulders and say, "It happens, I guess. I'm only human. I meant well."

But here's what would be better: be like my husband. Get down on your knees and get rid of the dirt. Stop the trail in its tracks.

"So they went off and preached repentance." — Mark 6:12

Comings and Goings

Congratulations to those recently baptized: Kolton William Cook, Dominic Neal, and Everly Elizabeth Riedinger.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs "two by two", those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality.

The SEEL Deadline is just one month away. Wondering if you should join the SEEL program this year? Spend time in prayer. God calls each person when it is right for them. If you are interested, please send your application as soon as possible. Spaces are limited and the demand is growing. As you might know from past bulletin notices, SEEL is a nine-month prayer and spiritual direction program designed for lay persons. Each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn by practice many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. This powerful program is Catholic and Christian, and people of all faiths are welcome.

If you feel called to join the Spiritual Exercises this year, please apply as soon as possible. For an application or information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

In Chapter 53 of the Rule of St. Benedict, he tells his monks that all who visit the monastery are to be welcomed as Christ. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the disciples to leave the place that did not welcome them; where they were welcomed, they were able to heal the sick in both body and soul. St. Benedict recognizes the deep value of hospitality. When we see Christ in others, grace abounds.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The heart of a Lay Carmelite vocation:

Excerpts from "Into the Land of Carmel", Joseph Chalmers, O. Carm. 2002 (1 of 4)

The Third Order rule focuses on the mission of lay Carmelites, which is rooted in baptism, and through which each Christian shares in the common priesthood of Christ, his regal dignity and his prophetic ministry.

Lay people exercise these functions by taking a full part in the life of the Church and extending the benefits of the liturgy to daily life. They are to contribute to the sanctification of the world.

Profession as a member of the lay Carmelites is an intensified repetition of our baptismal promises. By entering the Order they take upon themselves the Carmelite charism, which is profoundly marked by prayer. Therefore prayer, both liturgical and personal, is a vital and integral part of the lay Carmelite.

- Participation, daily if possible, in the Eucharist;
- The divine office, the prayer of Christ;
- Person prayer, above all Lectio Divina, the prayerful listening to the Word of God

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
