Sunday Reflection

To Whom Shall We Go?

A friend of mine, who is a far better Christian than I can ever hope to be, once shared with me that her family sneers at her belief system and lifestyle.

She believes in fairy tales, they tell her. She's looking for simple solutions from a kind-faced man in the sky, because she doesn't want to grapple with complicated answers to complicated problems.

Religion, they argue, is the easy way out.

As she spoke about this, her voice became unsteady. Not with anger, but with emotion. "I would never call this life easy," she said. "If I was looking for something that was easy, I wouldn't choose Catholicism."

What was unspoken was why she has chosen Catholicism. I know the answer, but only because I know her. I knew her before she chose it wholeheartedly, and I know her now, and I see the difference. I see that these words are written so clearly across the days of her life: "Master, to whom shall we go?"

Once the truth is known in your soul, you see, it can never be unknown.

Following Christ is not about easy answers and simple teachings. Sure, it all sounds very basic: love one another as I have loved you. What could be more straightforward?

But what does that mean? What does that look like in daily, modern life, in a world full of the fallen, whose flaws have given us rough edges and weakened wills?

I'll tell you what it looks like — it looks like a struggle. It looks like failure and mess and confusion and losing your way and finding it again, all because you remembered that within you there is a compass pointing due north. It's a constant state of wandering in the dark, following a Voice that asks you to go where you're afraid to go. And you follow the Voice not because it's the only voice there is and not because it's the voice that says what you want to hear, but because it's the only one that speaks the truth, and the truth pulls on you in a way you can't quite resist.

When Christ asks, "Do you also want to leave?" he is not gaslighting us. It's a genuine question. We are free to go. We are not prisoners.

But we have heard the words of everlasting life, and now we can only have peace if we follow where they lead.

"As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."
— Joshua 24:15

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks "Do you also want to leave?" We must ask ourselves if we really want to hear the good news of his love for us and for others. Is the word of God able to break into our consciousness, change us and call us to hear the cries of the poor?

As Catholics and Vincentians we are called to serve the poor. Where and how can you help us to see the poor in our community to better serve those who call out to us?

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more.

Richland Secure Self Storage has graciously donated a storage unit to CK St. Vincent de Paul for furniture items donated to families in need. Please consider contacting RSSS for your storage unit needs.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

Summer has ended, and as autumn begins, it's a good time to recommit to daily prayer. We encourage you to take time to pray each day so that your heart turns ever more toward your creator and Lord.

Those who registered for the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life will begin a new session on Saturday, September 14, at 9 a.m. We will review basics on how to begin praying Ignatian prayer, and give the history of how the Spiritual Exercises came to be, based on the life of St. Ignatius Loyola.

If you are an alum of SEEL or a new participant, we invite you to join us. You should get a notice of the meeting by email. If you aren't on the list, or want to change your contact information, please contact us at info@seeltc.com or visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

"Do you also want to leave?" St. Benedict addresses our human nature in the Holy Rule: when a monk is received as a member of the community, he is given monastic garments but his lay clothing is reserved in case he (God forbid, as St. Benedict says) decides to leave. In another chapter, the Rule lays out the procedure for receiving those who leave back into the monastery. Like Jesus, St. Benedict knows that our human natures are prone to distractions. And like Jesus, St. Benedict tells us we are always welcome to come back.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The fundamental elements of Carmelite spirituality:

Excerpts from "The Fundamental Elements of Carmelite Spirituality", Joseph Chalmers, O. Carm. 2002 (1 of 4)

Carmelite Spirituality is Marian.

We do not travel the way alone. Accompanying us always is our Blessed Lady. Titus Brandsma said that the Carmelite vocation is to become another Mary...this sums up our contemplative vocation best of all. She had the most intimate relationship with Christ. She let go of her own will, her own ideas and plans so that the will of God could be accomplished in her. She guides and teaches us how to recognize the small still voice of God and to surrender to His presence and works in our lives. Our devotion to her is directed toward becoming more like her son—Jesus Christ.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Opportunities at St. Patrick in Pasco

Women ages 16 and up are invited to the WHOLE-HEARTED WOMEN'S GATHERING "Full of Grace" for a day of inspiration, faith, and fellowship Saturday, October 5 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Check in at St. Patrick's Pasco Parish Center opens at 8 a.m. allowing time for registration, shopping at the marketplace, and continental breakfast. This year's gathering will focus on our dignity as women and deepening our prayer life. Tickets are $45. The retreat includes talks, Adoration, Reconciliation, continental breakfast, catered lunch, drinks, snacks, and a swag bag. Tickets are on sale now at Eventbrite.

A Note from the Serra Club

"Choose this day whom you will serve." (from Joshua 24: 15-17)

Consider how you are being called to serve the Lord. Is your vocation to be a priest, permanent deacon, religious brother, or sister?

St. Vincent de Paul service opportunity: the St. Patrick's Conference of St. Vincent de Paul is seeking a volunteer President to direct their operations in Pasco. They serve the poor through a food bank, community services, and a no-cost boutique, and link needy neighbors to many resources. If this opportunity speaks to your heart, please call 509-544-9315 or write to OpenDoorToHope@gmail.com and mention your interest!
