Sunday Reflection

The Word

On November 28, 1981, Alphonsine Mumureke was in the dining room at her high school in Kibeho, a small village in southwestern Rwanda. She heard a voice. It was a woman, veiled and beautiful. Alphonsine asked her who she was. "I am the Mother of the Word," answered the woman.

It was the first appearance of Our Lady of Kibeho, who would return to visit Alphonsine and two of her school-mates over the course of the next eight years. She left with them an urgent call for repentance, along with a prophecy of the Rwandan genocide that would come to fruition in the next decade.

I have always found it compelling that Our Lady chose to identify herself in this way at Kibeho. The Mother of the Word. A title so simple and so concise, but so heavy with meaning.

"In the beginning was the Word..." says the Gospel of John in its opening lines.

But what is the Word? Is it spoken, or is it felt? Is it seen, written, heard? Is it shouted or whispered? Is it scribbled across pages that will one day dry and disappear? Is it carved into stone tablets, or on the name-plate above a cross? Is it poured over our foreheads? Is it set ablaze in a bush? Is it etched into our hearts?

It is all of these things, yes, but it is more, still. The Word is not something that is merely spoken. It is not merely written. The Word is something that is done. It is something that we must choose to do.

Our Lady of Kibeho lamented that this world "has neither love nor peace." "If you do not convert and heal your hearts, you will all fall into an abyss," she warned.

But how do we convert our hearts? What snatches us back from the brink?

It is the Word, spoken. It is the Word, carried out. Not just one, and not just the other, but both.

"Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls." — James 1:21

Congratulations to those recently baptized:
Lincoln Joseph Blanc and Gian Mateo Nunez Herrera.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

The gospel today hits home closer than we may think. What traditions do we blindly cling to? Perhaps it is enough for us just to go to Mass on Sunday? Do we keep the letter of the law and miss entirely the spirit of the law? Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living: self-giving for the sake of others.

As you give your gift to the poor through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you will obtain purity of heart and understand the good news of God's love. If you have ever wondered how the Society of St. Vincent de Paul gives selflessly to those in need please check out this short video that shares how Vincentians throughout the United States give to others:

<https://vimeo.com/995069276>.

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 or bruce@svdpc.org to learn more.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

Those who registered for the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life will begin a new session on Saturday, September 14, at 9 a.m. We will review basics on how to begin praying Ignatian prayer, and give the history of how the Spiritual Exercises came to be, based on the life of St. Ignatius Loyola.

If you are an alum of SEEL or a new participant, we invite you to join us. You should get a notice of the meeting by email. If you aren't on the list, or want to change your contact information, please contact us at info@seeltc.com or visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

In today's Epistle, James exhorts the reader to 'keep oneself unstained by the world.' The Rule of St. Benedict (4:20) says 'your way of acting should be different from the world's way.' And neither James nor St. Benedict ever met modern media!

Michael Casey, writing in Seventy Four Tools for Good Living (a commentary on Chapter 4 of the Rule), says this about verse 20: 'Spending hours surfing the web not only consumes the day and induces a state of mental acedia but also opens the doors to influences that may profoundly weaken commitment to the values that undergird monastic or Christian life.' Ouch! Guilty!

What can we do? We can't lock ourselves in a cave. A responsible citizen is aware of issues affecting our society. However, we can use the tools of Chapter 4 in the Rule, prayer, and holy reading to preserve balance and the attitude of Christ in our souls.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The fundamental elements of Carmelite spirituality:

Excerpts from "The Fundamental Elements of Carmelite Spirituality", Joseph Chalmers, O. Carm. 2002 (4 of 4)

Like the journeys of our forerunners St Elijah, St. John of the Cross, or St. Therese of Avila, modern day Carmelites must too pass by way of the desert, through the dark night of the soul and delve interiorly to prepare to meet God in the sound of the gentle breeze or the peacefulness of silence.

Supporting the Carmelite vocation are the scriptural readings and prayers found in the Liturgy of the Hours (the most powerful prayers of the Church, second only to the Mass), the study of scripture (the Lectio Divina), the Sacraments of the Church, and the writings of the saints.

Carmelite Spirituality is synonymous with prayer, contemplation and service. We are invited to an intimate relationship with God in the midst of our busy lives; He asks only for our consent. With this relationship at the center of our being, all our activity will become all the more fruitful.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

WHOLEHEARTED WOMEN'S GATHERING "Full of Grace": A day of inspiration, faith, and fellowship. Saturday, October 5 from 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. This year's gathering will focus on our dignity as women and on our prayer life. Tickets are $45. The day includes talks, Adoration, Reconciliation, continental breakfast, catered lunch, drinks, snacks, and a swag bag. Tickets are on sale now at Eventbrite.

Jubilee Italy Pilgrimage with Fr. Rex Familiar: August 11-20, 2025. For more information and to register contact Winnie Magdangal at 714-785-4545.

St. Vincent de Paul service opportunity: the St. Patrick's Conference of St. Vincent de Paul is seeking a volunteer President to direct their operations in Pasco. They serve the poor through a food bank, community services, and a no-cost boutique, and link needy neighbors to many resources. If this opportunity speaks to your heart, please call 509-544-9315 or write to OpenDoorToHope@gmail.com and mention your interest!

A Note from the Serra Club

"Be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves." (from James 1: 21-22)

Jesus is the Word Who calls you to serve Him in truth. Is He inviting you to be a priest, permanent deacon, religious brother, or sister?

September 22 is Priesthood Sunday. Please consider how you will show your priests that you appreciate their service and all they do for your parish.
