Comings and Goings

Congratulations to those recently baptized:

Theodore Joseph Hager, Alexander Hines, Alexis Hines, Christoph Andrew Pellessier, Mae Sofia Torralbo, and Andi Webb.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words.

As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words "you are my beloved in whom I am well pleased"

Tech Helpers Needed: The Christmas Baskets and Sharing Tree tradition of Christ the King Parish, School and St. Vincent de Paul Society needs two or more tech-proficient parishioners to implement our application and list-making process for 2025 and beyond. Proficiency in Google Work Space would be helpful. If you are interested in joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul by serving your neighbors in this way, please call Bruce at 509 627 7295 for more information.

Sunday Reflection

Beneath the Surface

When I was seventeen, I wasn't sure that I wanted to be confirmed. It was a rough period in my life, and I was having some intense questions and doubts. It upset my mother, understandably. She knew that, at such a pivotal and difficult moment, I needed the grace of the sacrament more than ever. So, she called our priest and asked him to talk to me.

After that meeting, I made the decision to be confirmed.

To be honest, I can't remember anything he said to me. All I remember is that he sat with me. He listened to me. He let me talk and talk and talk (and cry). And when he said whatever he said, whatever it is that I cannot remember, it was obvious that he had listened to me.

Reading today's Gospel, it makes perfect sense that everyone thought John the Baptist was the Messiah. He was the guy pouring the water. Of course it seemed natural that he would be "the one." The one they were all waiting for.

But instead, the Messiah was the man who came to be baptized. He was the one who descended into the waters, submerging himself in our experience of death and pain and sorrow — and in doing so, he sanctified it. He made it a means of redemption.

Jesus is our Savior, yes. When we dig ourselves a hole of sin and confusion and we can't climb out, he is the one who brings us back to the surface. But he doesn't pull us out; he lifts us. He jumps down into the pit. He looks around. He offers his hand, gives us a leg up, and by his strength and not our own, we are brought back into the light.

A Note of Thanks

The Christ the King Ladies Breakfast Fundraiser Committee thanks all of our donors, parishioners, family members and friends who contributed to the huge success of our Christmas fundraiser this year (2024).

Because of your generosity we were able to raise $7,515 for the Elijah Family Homes Organization.

Thank you for your silent auction items, raffle items, and door prizes.

The feedback we have received says it was a wonderful event for all who attended.

We look forward to continuing our tradition of blending the best of the Christmas season's joy and sharing our financial resources to assist our community neighbors in need.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

To discern, a person considers their own standards in the light of Christ's standards. This might challenge us because God's standards are often counter-cultural. For instance, Jesus says, "Blessed are the poor in spirit." The world tries to convince us that, "blessed are the rich and comfortable." Jesus says, "Blessed are the meek." The world pushes, "Blessed are the tough." Jesus tells us, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness" and the world contradicts with, "Blessed are those whose every want is satisfied." With a culture that often directly opposes Jesus' values, no wonder it's so tough to continue to follow our Lord! Fortunately, God in his goodness gives us the grace we need to follow him.

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be February 8 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Chapter 2 of the Rule of St. Benedict (Qualities of the Abbot) contains wise guidance for leaders. It also contains a bit of a warning for the community: that its members not be 'a restive and disobedient flock.' As we prepare to inaugurate a new President, it's good advice for everyone.

Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time Jan. 16, at noon in the parish library. Our meetings last about an hour; we begin and end with prayer and in between read and discuss the Rule of St. Benedict. Please join us!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Ponder the Collect and Preface of the Eucharistic Prayer for the Baptism of the Lord:

Collect: O God, whose Only Begotten Son has appeared in our very flesh, grant, we pray, that we may be inwardly transformed through him whom we recognize as outwardly like ourselves.

Preface: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, Holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

For in the waters of the Jordan you revealed with signs and wonders a new Baptism, so that through the voice that came down from heaven we might come to believe in your Word dwelling among us, and by the Spirit's descending in the likeness of a dove we might know that Christ your Servant has been anointed with the oil of gladness and sent to bring the good news to the poor.

Bishop Tyson will grant the Jubilee Year Plenary Indulgence, a Jubilee Grace, to all participants at the Masses (after saying the Lord's Prayer, a profession of faith, and prayer honoring our Blessed Mother).

Jubilee Year Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen.
