From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.
Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and to trust.
For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.
Learn more about our conference at our website: www.svdpck.org

Tech Helpers Needed: The Christmas Baskets and Sharing Tree tradition of Christ the King Parish, School and St. Vincent de Paul Society needs two or more tech-proficient parishioners to implement our application and list-making process for 2025 and beyond. Proficiency in Google Work Space would be helpful. If you are interested in joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul by serving your neighbors in this way, please call Bruce at 509 627 7295 for more information.

An Invitation from our friends at St. Patrick in Pasco: The St. Patrick's St. Vincent de Paul Food Bank bundles food items for God's most desperate on the last Monday of the month. If you can help them on Monday, Jan. 27, from 10 a.m. to noon, call 509-544-9315 or email opendoortohope@gmail.com. The location is 215 S. 6th Ave. in Pasco. As they say "we invite you, need you, and thank you!!"

Do Whatever He Tells You

I once ran out of pizza at my kid's birthday party. Everyone told me it wasn't a big deal but come on. It was a disaster. I had invited all these people over. They showed up with presents and sang "Happy Birthday" and stood around patiently while my kid ripped through his cache of gifts. The very least they were expecting was to be fed sufficiently.
I'll tell you what, I sure could have used the Blessed Mother that night.
I love the story of the wedding at Cana because it's such a silly little miracle. I don't mean to be disrespectful — of course it's an incredibly important moment in Christ's public life. But it's not healing a leper. It's not raising the dead. It's not even walking on water. It's saving a young couple from embarrassment.
I think sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own. What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own. It's so fitting that Mary, ever the observant Mother, is the one to bring the matter to Jesus' attention. He asks her what this problem has to do with him. She doesn't answer him, because, between you and me, I don't think he's asking her. I think he's asking us. All she does is tell the waiters what I consider to be the best piece of advice in all of Scripture: "Do whatever he tells you."
I'm so quick to throw up my hands and feel sorry for myself when I encounter a barrier in my life. What I should be doing is taking the matter to God, and then doing whatever He tells me.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

During this part of the Spiritual Exercises, we pray about Jesus' life so we can understand who he is, how he calls us, and how we can follow. This means we adopt a spiritual attentiveness, watching and waiting on God's lead. We notice the ebb and flow of our feelings and moods. We are a servant following our master, Jesus. The questions we seek to answer during this time is "What is God doing in my life? What more can I do to respond to God's love for me?"

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be February 8 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

One of the vows Benedictine monks make is obedience. In today's gospel story, Mary foreshadows that vow: "Do whatever he tells you." In both cases, obedience implies that we listen.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Pray and ponder the following Collect said at the beginning of Mass and Preface V of the Sundays in Ordinary Time, which Father prays at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer:

Collect: Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are yours.

Preface: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, Holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For you laid the foundations of the world and have arranged the changing of times and seasons; you formed man in your own image and set humanity over the whole world in all its wonder, to rule in your name over all you have made and forever praise you in your mighty works, through Christ our Lord.

And so, with all the Angels, we praise you, as in joyful celebration we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts... For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
