In today's Gospel the prodigal son repents and finds mercy in the heart of his father. Know that your penance during Lent can give the poor the grace of finding the merciful heart of God the Father.

A recent neighbor was months behind on rent due to the office not taking partial payments and was sure that the management was trying to get rid of her by making up a bunch of new rules. Our members were able to speak with her to help her understand that these rules are being implemented in many places and she should go back to talk with management about her situation calmly. SVdP was able to help with the remaining amount of rent and get her squared away with the office management.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.

Sunday Reflection

The Apology

I like to imagine the Prodigal Son practicing his apology in the mirror.

He wouldn't have, of course. Mirrors weren't exactly a dime a dozen back then. But I imagine him anyway, rehearsing the words as he contemplates his own gaunt reflection: "Father, I have sinned against God and against you. Treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."

In other words, I have done wrong. I deserve nothing from you. But please, don't let me starve. Save me.

The apology wasn't necessary to move the heart of the father. We know that because before they meet, before anything is said, the father is overcome with compassion — not because he got his satisfaction, that long-awaited "I'm sorry, I was wrong." No, he's simply overjoyed to see his son alive. Even without apology, we know the father will beg his son to stay.

So why does the son apologize?

The father doesn't need the "I'm sorry." He isn't starving and lost. He knew all along it was a bad idea. He doesn't need to learn any lessons.

But what a tragedy it would have been, if the son had never said he was sorry. Undoubtedly, his father would have let him stay as a hired worker, and he would have had food to eat. He would have survived. But he wouldn't have been what he was born to be.

I often think of the son's apology as I am kneeling in the confessional, awkwardly reciting sins God already knows and is eager to forgive. Why are you doing this? some people would ask. God doesn't need this.

It's the apology, you see. The apology means everything. The Prodigal Son was dead. The apology brought him back to life.

God doesn't need our repentance. We need our repentance.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

Those who are currently praying through the Spiritual Exercises are focused on Jesus' passion in their prayer. The grace they ask for is to accompany Christ through his sorrow. The Gospel reminds us that life can turn from joyous to tragic in a moment, and that consolation and desolation are important to help us know God's will. As we pray through the passion, we discover that God is all merciful and loving, and wants the best for us. God sent His Son through the Incarnation, to die for our salvation, and to rise from the dead to show us that heaven is possible. Amazingly, God is relational, and wants to communicate with us. Prayer is how we can do that at any moment. Don't forget to take time each day to speak with your Creator.

For this year's participants and alums, the next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be April 26 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be The Resurrection and Learning to Love Like God.. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

The portions of the Rule of St. Benedict we are reading at this time concern, in addition to the observance of Lent, the importance of routines in daily life. In times of unrest—and when in history have there not been such times?—maintaining our routines of prayer and work can insulate us from distress.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa (10 of 12)

Her writings on prayer:

Little by little our soul becomes accustomed to live in His blessed company, realizing that it bears within itself a little Heaven, in which the God of love has made His Home.

Not only in solitude but in the company of others and in the performing of our ordinary duties, we can preserve this solitude of the heart and familiarly converse with God. Those who from necessity are obliged to converse with the world, and even in the streets and public places possess solitude of the heart, and remain united with God.

When concerning difficult or doubtful questions let us recollect ourselves in God, and if we can, go before the Blessed Sacrament and ask Counsel and light, and arrange everything with God before treating with men. If we pray well, God with His grace and light will always be with us, and cause all that we do to turn to His glory.

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa, Pray for us.

The April First Tuesday Holy Year Jubilee Mass at St. Paul Cathedral in Yakima is April 1 at 5:30 p.m. (English) and 7:00 p.m. (Spanish). At this Mass, we will welcome, honor, and especially pray for military, police, fire, emergency personnel, and retired first responders. A reception will follow.

Openings remain on a Jubilee Year 'Shrines of Italy' trip: August 11-20, 2025 with Fr. Rex Familiar. Winnie Magdangal is the group leader.

In And Around the Diocese

Natural Family Planning: Emily Gonzalez of our parish is offering instruction in the Boston Cross Check method, which helps families avoid pregnancy, achieve pregnancy, or chart for health. The method helps women and couples in all stages of life. For more information, contact Emily at forhealthandfertility@gmail.com

A Note from the Serra Club

"I am the Light of the world" says the Lord. (from John 9:1-41: Year A Gospel)
Are you called to bring the Light of Christ to the world as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, or sister?

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
