From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on the care and love of Jesus for us.

Recently, a young mother of two children received a surprise notice from the Social Security Administration that she was no longer eligible for the benefits she had been receiving. The earliest appointment she could get to fix the mixup was in three weeks, too long to avoid a power shutoff. Your donations allowed our conference to keep her power connected for another month.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul shows our neighbors that you are indeed disciples of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. It allows our members to bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpc.org.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

In a conversation with members of the Jesuit order, Pope Francis said the life situations of everyday Catholics aren't black and white, but rather vary on a spectrum of gray. Because people's lives are complex, the Pope stressed the need for the Church to teach seminarians more about spiritual discernment. He cautioned that many priests can't relate to or accompany the people they counsel, since they haven't been properly formed.

We as lay people also need to be formed in Godly decision making, so that we can learn to make decisions based on where God calls us. Fortunately for us, God, through St. Ignatius, has given us the Spiritual Exercises to teach us discernment.

The Spiritual Exercises begin again in September. We invite you to join us. To learn more about SEEL please visit <https://seeltc.com>

Benedictine Spirituality:

As we begin re-reading the Rule of St. Benedict, we encounter Chapter 2: the Qualities of the Abbot, and Chapter 3: Summoning the Brethren for Counsel. Seems like great timing as we pray for the papal conclave!

Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time May 15, at noon in the parish library. We open and close with prayer, and read and reflect upon a portion of the Holy Rule. You are welcome to join us!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Join the Church in praying the following intercessions for the Easter Season:

- All-holy Father, you brought your beloved Son Jesus from the darkness of death into the splendor of your glory, bring us also into your marvelous light.
- You have given us faith to save us, may we live today by the faith of our baptism.
- You command us to seek the things that are above, where Christ is seated at your right hand, do not let us be deceived by the allurements of sin.

Reflect on the following portion of Preface IV of Easter:

- For, with the old order destroyed, a universe cast down is renewed, and integrity of life is restored to us in Christ.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

A Bit of History

On May 20, 2025, the Catholic Church and the whole Christian world will remember with gratitude and joy the opening of the Council of Nicaea in 325.

The great gift of this first ecumenical council was the Nicene Creed, professed by Christians every Sunday throughout the world.

The late Pope Francis wrote, "The Council of Nicaea is a milestone in the Church's history. The celebration of its anniversary invites Christians to unite in a hymn of praise and thanksgiving to the Holy Trinity and in particular to Jesus Christ, the Son of God, 'consubstantial with the Father', who revealed to us this mystery of love."

When the Church celebrates the 1700th anniversary of the Creed, we will have a new Holy Father, and we will profess with him, in every church throughout the world, the faith that unites us as disciples of Jesus Christ throughout the centuries.
