

Parish Religious Education Coordinator for Adult Programs

This position develops, coordinates, and facilitates Religious Education activities for adults of all ages within the parish, providing opportunities for ongoing, active growth in the Catholic faith. We are seeking a person who can provide a professional and friendly demeanor in representing the parish to our parishioners, the Diocese, volunteers, and the general public.

This person must be a practicing Catholic and active in parish life. A BA in Education or Religious Studies is preferred. Three years experience working or volunteering in a parish religious education program is desired.

If you have a desire to join the Christ the King Religious Education Community in the pursuit of education, the cultivation of religious values and ideas, and the development of adult studies for our community, you are encouraged to apply for this part-time (25 hours/week) position.

Applications and job description can be obtained at the Parish Office from 8:30AM-4:30PM, Monday - Friday.

Deadline for applications is Monday, August 19, 2019.
