- an app in both the Android and Apple app stores provides a downloadable copy of this year's Breaking Bread missalette for $4.99.

Bring either to Mass or use them at home! Remember to take them home if you use them at church.

Sunday Reflection

Confidence in Princes

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, "have you prayed about it as much as you've talked about it?"

Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to Someone with a higher pay grade.

But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it.

Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it's a good sign that we're losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God?

"It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes," the Psalms tell us. Well, I've never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — "I've got this."

It's tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I'll let you in on a secret: it doesn't matter what the question is, we don't have the answer. Take it to the One who does.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Ignatian Spirituality is made up of several core principles. These include: 1) Each of us is loved by God. 2) God creates each person uniquely and individually, moment by moment. 3) To be fully human requires spiritual freedom. 4) Humans mature through obedience to God's will. 5) Evil works to block freedom, disrupt obedience, and undermine humanity. 6) With grace, we can find God in all things. 7) We are called to promote God's reign and to be apostolic. 8) We can develop companionship in Christ, working together for the Kingdom. When lived out, these principles form followers into discerning Christians. If you'd like to spend time learning these principles, you are invited to join us in September.

For this year's participants, the next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 8 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be the Gifts of the Spiritual Exercises. To learn more about SEEL or watch the presentation after the meeting, please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

The Rule of St. Benedict speaks often about the role of a shepherd: Christ is the chief shepherd, but each of us – monk, abbot, lay student – is a shepherd of some flock, however large or small. St. Benedict calls us to love and serve members of our community as the shepherd cares for his sheep, so that we may all together arrive at eternal life.

If Benedictine spirituality interests you, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Solemn Intercessions from Good Friday

During the Good Friday service, 10 Solemn Intercessions are universally lifted in prayer. They are provided here for you to call them to mind and bring them to God in your private prayer as well.

1. For Holy Church

Let us pray, dearly beloved, for the holy Church of God, that our God and Lord be pleased to give her peace, to guard her and to unite her throughout the whole world and grant that leading our life in tranquility and quiet, we may glorify God the Father almighty.

*Almighty ever-living God, who in Christ revealed your glory to all the nations,
watch over the works of your mercy,
that your Church, spread throughout all the world,
may persevere with steadfast faith in confessing your name.*

Through Christ our Lord. Amen

In and Around the Diocese

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

Today is the 58th World Day of Prayer for Vocations. According to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, "The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest."

Pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life, especially, for your diocese.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, you made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

We ask that You inspire young people whom You call to the priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.
