Sunday Reflection

Murmurings

When people whisper, what they whisper usually is not flattering. It's also usually not accurate. If it was either of these things, it probably wouldn't have to be whispered.

"Stop murmuring among yourselves," Jesus tells the community in today's Gospel, and I think I detect a hint of impatience in his voice — or is that just my own bias? Maybe, maybe not. But it's true that what they were whispering about wasn't particularly flattering, and it also wasn't very accurate: Did you hear what he said? That he's the bread of life?

Do they disbelieve, or are they simply confused? Resentful? Afraid? Overwhelmed? We don't know, but we do know that they're not bringing their questions into the open. They're whispering them, trading them secretly, like contraband candy.

We know this guy. Who does he think he is? Well, if you ask me...

And then we get to what is usually the true purpose of a whispered opinion: the desire to make oneself out as the correct and unchallenged judge of the matter at hand.

In many ways, we have become a Church of murmurers. Did you see what Bishop So-and-So said to Such-and-Such newspaper? Did you hear what Fr. Whatshisname said in his homily? Who does he think he is? Well, if you ask me...

Perhaps it was always this way, even before modern times. Perhaps this Gospel shows us that this is no new thing.

Today, we see Jesus respond to his sulking critics by drawing their attention back to the truth at the heart of his teaching. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. And that is the end of their murmuring.

The truth is like a brick wall, and it knocks them over — or rather they, hurling themselves against it, knock themselves over.

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." — John 6:51

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel for the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the child in Elizabeth's womb leaps with joy at the approach of Mary, the "lowly servant," who by accepting God's plan for her became blessed for all generations. Many women follow Mary's example of service; for example, earlier this summer we assisted a grandmother caring for two of her grandchildren and her own mother. The grandmother had been unable to work while waiting for approval of her application for caregiver assistance. She had three upcoming surgeries and an eviction notice. Your generous donations enabled St. Vincent de Paul to keep her and her family in their apartment.

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The SEEL Deadline is August 15! If you feel called to join this powerful and enriching prayer program, please get your application in as soon as possible. Spaces are limited and the demand is high. As you might know from past bulletin notices, the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) is a nine-month prayer and spiritual direction program designed for lay persons. SEEL is flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn by practice many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises are powerful. This is a Catholic, Christian program, and people of all faiths are welcome.

For an application or information, please visit <https://seeltc.com>; contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time August 15, at noon in the parish library.

However, because August 15 is a holy day, please join us at the noon Mass to honor the Assumption of the Blessed Mother!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The fundamental elements of Carmelite spirituality:

Excerpts from "The Fundamental Elements of Carmelite Spirituality", Joseph Chalmers, O. Carm. 2002 (1 of 4)

Carmelite Spirituality is Christocentric.

Our eyes are fixed on Christ as he is our leader, teacher, brother, Savior, and Lord. We seek to be attentive to and to cooperate with the voice of God in our daily lives.

As we embrace Christ's message (the contemplative dimension and core of the Carmelite Way), we seek to live the Gospel in daily life through community and service to others (the active dimension to the Carmelite Way).

Carmelite Spirituality is Community. We do not follow Christ as individuals but as brothers and sisters bound together, with a common heritage as family, to become Christ-like and to love and act as God does. It is a commitment to serve others, to bring the values of God's Kingdom to the here and now of our daily lives.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
