Sunday Reflection

All Our Strength

I didn't realize how much my arms would hurt when I became a mom.

It occurred to me first during Mass when my daughter was just a few weeks old. She was the kind of kid who could only sleep in someone's arms. I desperately wanted her to stay quiet during the service, so I held the swaddled bundle in front of me like it was a bomb, not daring to move. By the homily, my arms were on fire.

I quickly realized this was a common scenario of my new life as a parent. Holding, rocking, bouncing, restraining, dragging — honestly, my weak little chicken-arms had never been worked out like this before. It took all my strength.

But isn't that the way it is with everything that's worthwhile? It takes all your strength. Not some of it. Not most of it. All of it.

I am a fairly active Catholic. My faith impacts a lot of areas of my life. But there are still boundaries that I've drawn around God. There are places I haven't let Him in. Things I keep "for myself." Experiences that are just so full of me, so full of my own plans and my own desires.

But God desires everything. Not because He is selfish, but because He is good, and wise. Because He knows that the places we keep from Him will become filled with something else. He wants to get there first. He wants to lay His claim.

He wants all our strength. All our heart. All our soul. All our mind. Not most of it. All of it.

Can we give it to Him?

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength...and you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

SVdP often provides Hope along with Help. A Richland neighbor who lives alone and relies on his vehicle as a sole income source reached out to CK this spring for assistance with unexpected repair needs. The unplanned financial stress of the sudden loss of income left this neighbor feeling hopeless as his monthly bills were coming due. SVdP stepped in and partnered with the neighbor to get his car repaired, putting him back to work and feeling confident again in his ability to be self-sufficient. This neighbor recently reached out to us again to simply let us know that all was going fine and to say thanks again ... for the help and for the hope.

Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul shows your love for our Lord and your love especially for this neighbor who reached out to us for help and hope.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.

Sausage Fest 2024 Was a Success!

Thank you to each and every Sausage Fest volunteer for your service and support: school parents and parishioners, teachers, and school and parish staff! No one else in our community puts on an event like this, and we could not do it alone. We know the Holy Spirit is alive and well in all of these efforts because of the fruit that Fest bears.

We are still expecting some income and paying some bills - so these numbers are not finalized. But here are the most accurate numbers to date: we budgeted a contribution to the 2025/26 school year of $130,000 and we are pleased to announce that Fest will be able to contribute $175,410! Every penny netted stays at the school and is instrumental to the operational budget of the next school year. If you'd like more detailed information on how specific booths performed at Fest, please email cksfchair@ckschool.net.

We are honored to serve as the General Chairs of Sausage Fest, working with all of the wonderful volunteers, and we look forward to next year! Thank you to those who stepped up in leadership positions. Fest really is about the kids. If all our efforts at Fest bring joy into the lives of our Christ the King kids and to every neighborhood kiddo who walks on to our campus, then we have our guiding principles right. We feel blessed to be a part of such a meaningful community event!

With gratitude,

Theresa Woehle and Caitlin Elder

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are under way. For more information, please email info@seeltc.com or visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

St. Benedict quotes today's Gospel in the first lines of Chapter 4 (The Tools for Good Works) in his Rule. To love God, to love our neighbors, and to love ourselves is the very essence of spiritual health and the foundation for all other 'good' actions.

Michael Casey, OSCO, writes in Seventy-Four Tools for Good Living: Reflections on the Fourth Chapter of Benedict's Rule, that "the condition for giving our love to another is our first receiving love from someone. In the same way, we love God because we have experienced that God first loved us. The more we have experienced God's love, the more likely we are to return God's love."

The scribe in today's Gospel must have realized the depth of God's love for him, when he proclaims that the love of God, neighbor, and self is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices. How about us? Have we found the same awareness?

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Living in God's Presence (9 of 10)

Excerpts from Chapter 9, Living in God's Presence, Climbing The Mountain, The Carmelite Journey, edited by Johan Bergstrom-Allen, TOC, St. Albert's Press & Edizioni Carmelitane, 2010

The simplicity of prayer for Saint Thérèse (The Little Flower):

St. Thérèse of Lisieux (d. 1897) wrote: 'For me, prayer is an aspiration of the heart, it is a simple glance directed to heaven, it is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy, which expands my soul and unites me to Jesus.' This prayer of aspiration has long been favored by Carmelites as a way to take up Saint Paul's injunction to 'Pray without ceasing' (1 Thessalonians 5:17) and continually acknowledge God's presence in our hearts. It is a way of keeping vigil with God, of 'keeping watch in prayer' as Saint Albert stated in Chapter 10 of (the Carmelite) Rule.

The word aspiration means 'the action of breathing' as well as 'the action of desiring'. The prayer of aspiration reflects both these meanings: with every breath we take we are in the presence of God who breathed life into the world, the God whom we desire. Lawrence and Thérèse encourage us to pray as we can, pray as we are, and pray where we are. We have feelings and emotions and we tend to rely on these as guides to how 'successful' our prayer is, but (they) knew that is was God who was working in them when they prayed, whether they felt it or not.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

A Note from the Serra Club

National Vocation Awareness Week (Nov. 3-9):

A Prayer for Vocations

For married couples, strengthen their covenant.
 For religious sisters, surround them with Your love.
 For priests, support them as they guide.
 For parents, sustain them in Your grace.
 For religious brothers, draw them nearer to You.
 For consecrated singles, be everything they need.
 For those discerning, be with them as they journey.
 Amen.

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
