Comings and Goings

Congratulations to those recently baptized:

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us that we are called to place gospel values before any other values and to be willing to put our lives on the line for them. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values.

Vincetians celebrate the Feast Day of Blessed Rosalie Rendu on February 7. Sister Rosalie was the Daughter of Charity who in 1833 guided the first group of Vincetians who were all university students at the Sorbonne University of Paris. Sister Rosalie taught Blessed Frederic Ozanam and his classmates how to visit, listen and bring comfort to the poor in a country ravaged by revolution and civil disorder.

Is God calling you to visit, listen and bring comfort to the poor in our community? Please consider joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Sunday Reflection

The Thoughts of Many Hearts

When Simeon cradles the infant Messiah in his arms, he speaks of salvation and glory and revelation. He speaks of his own death. He speaks of the fulfillment of God's promise to all people.

But most memorable, in my opinion, are his words about the hearts of men. This Child, he says, will be the way "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Perhaps you're like me. Perhaps you don't enjoy scrutinizing yourself, your actions, your intentions. You don't like reflecting on why you feel or react the way you do, and you really don't enjoy measuring those feelings and reactions against what you know they could be.

It's exhausting to sit with God, your heart in your hands, both of us looking at it, talking about it. So far too often, I opt out.

The oldest trick of the devil, you see, is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do. There are so many other things I could be doing, after all. Answering emails. Catching up on laundry. Scrolling Facebook. Worrying about inflation and the election. Stressing about my kid's dance recital and next week's busy schedule.

But where is God truly at work? Where is the place God will point to, when my life on Earth has come to its close?

It is the very depths of my heart. The place where I am my most authentic self, for better or worse. The place where all my pretensions crumble away, and I am alone with the truth of who I am and what I choose to do.

Am I brave enough to look into the depths of my own heart?

Spiritual Practices

Please Pray For:

Ignatian Spirituality:

In describing his ministry, Ignatius liked to use the Spanish word 'conversar.' It means: "to converse, to talk with." Ignatian spirituality encourages us to relate to God and those around us in this way, in conversation. But there's more. 'Conversar' also means to know someone deeply, to be involved in their lives. In the Ignatian spirituality, we are called to a ministry of involvement, to converse and know others, so that we can learn to love them, ourselves, and God more deeply.

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be February 8 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seelc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

The Canticle of Simeon, which we read in today's Gospel, is prayed daily in Night Prayer of the Divine Office. Its antiphon is 'Protect us, Lord, as we stay awake, and watch over us as we sleep, that awake we may keep watch with Christ, and asleep, rest in his peace.' The combination can help us release the day's troubles and restore our confidence in God's triumph.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa (2 of 12)

Sister Angeline returned to the USA but this time to Pittsburgh in May 1925 as Assistant Superior; and then was reassigned as Mother Superior of Our Lady's Home in the Bronx in September 1926. At the age of 33 she was now in charge of 18 Little Sisters and 230 elderly residents.

She prayed her heart out in the chapel that she might indeed be "the Good Mother" and also "the good Servant" whom the Lord had placed over His household to give them food at the opportune time; food for their tables, and also for their souls.

She was aware of loneliness as a great Cross to the elderly who were institutionalized. She empathized with the needs of individuals who for the first time in their lives must adjust to corporate dwelling and institutional behavior. Her goal was 'resident-centered care'. It was her belief that residents would be treated as Christ himself, with ultimate respect and dignity.

She understood the differences in the expectations of the elderly of Europe and those of the United States and she made changes to her facility to accommodate these differences. Therefore she introduced small adaptations in the diet plan, and niceties like new paint, religious colored prints and statues, and simple new furniture.

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa, Pray for us.
