From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In this Sunday's Gospel, the disciples in their struggle finally recognize Jesus and proclaim "It is the Lord!"

As we pray for the repose of Pope Francis, let us remember that he lived his pontificate by bringing the love of our Lord to the poor in Rome. It was the founder of the Society of SVdP, Blessed Frédéric's, Sorbonne classmates in the Conference of History that challenged him to show the good of the church in Paris in 1833. Frédéric answered their challenge: "We must do what is agreeable to God...Let us go to the poor."

As Vincentians, we choose to serve to bring Christ's love to our neighbors in need. Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor recognize the Lord in their life" by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

For this year's participants, the last meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 10, at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be the Resurrection and Learning to Love like God.

For this year's participants, the last meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 10 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be Gifts of the Spiritual Exercises.

The Spiritual Exercises begin again in September. We invite you to join us. To learn more about SEEL please visit <https://seeltc.com>

Benedictine Spirituality:

In today's first reading, the apostles say 'We must obey God rather than men.' Obedience - taken as a vow by Benedictines - has at its root a Latin word that means 'to hear.' We are called to hear - to listen: to God and to each other. As we begin rereading the Rule of St. Benedict, we are reminded that the first word is 'Listen.'

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The Church celebrates Easter for fifty days until Pentecost. The Proper of Seasons of the Divine Office has special readings to focus our minds and hearts on this most holy Easter Season.

Join the Church in praying the following intercessions for the Easter Season:

- Lord, Jesus, we pray for your Catholic Church: make it holy, so that your kingdom may be established among all nations.
- We pray for those who have turned away from your paths, that they may experience the grace of your forgiveness and the joy of rising to new life.

Reflect on the following portion of Preface III of Easter:

- He never ceases to offer himself for us but defends us and ever pleads our cause before you: he is the sacrificial Victim who dies no more, the Lamb, once slain, who lives for ever.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

A Note from the Serra Club

"Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?' " Simon Peter answered Him, 'Yes, Lord. You know that I love You.' Jesus asked Peter the same question three times and received the same answer every time. Then Jesus asked Peter to 'Tend My lambs...Feed My sheep...Tend My lambs...' " (from John 21: 1-19)

Will you tend Jesus's flock as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, or sister? Don't make Him ask you several times!

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
