From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ. We hear Jesus ask his disciples, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" And he shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes.

Our helpline has seen a significant increase in the number of neighbors requesting assistance in the first seven months of our fiscal year - 557 households compared to 456 for the same period the previous year.

Today, as you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

This year, the Spiritual Exercises will begin again in September. This past season, SEEL reached the limit of our capacity for applicants. So, if you'd like to join the Spiritual Exercises this coming season, we urge you to apply early. The deadline for applying is July 14. If you have any questions or want more information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

In a recent letter from Abbot Jeremy Driscoll of Mount Angel Abbey, he described an incident in St. Benedict's life when, being interrupted in Lectio Divina, he resolved a conflict between an oppressor and a victim.

Abbot Jeremy writes: 'With the Scriptures in my hand, I want to do as St. Benedict did: look up from my reading and offer a quiet word, an attractive word, a word of power, a word that changes things. The world and the Church need this kind of word, a word from the Scriptures that changes things.'

In our world, beset with oppressors and victims, what could that word be?

Our small group meetings for June and July have been combined into one date: Thursday, July 10. You're welcome to join us at noon in the parish library as we celebrate the vigil of the Feast of St. Benedict!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Meditate with the Church on Malachi 1:11 taken from Office of Morning Prayer, Corpus Christi.

"From the rising of the sun,
even to its setting,
my name is great among the nations;
And everywhere they bring
sacrifice to my name,
and a pure offering;
For great is my name
among the nations,
says the Lord of hosts."

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Saturday, June 28, 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
at St. Joseph Church's Dillon Hall in Kennewick.
This gathering is for men aged 18 and older.

A Note from the Serra Club

"Whoever eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood remains in Me and I in him." (John 6: 57)

Will you ensure that the Holy Eucharist remains available to all of Jesus' people by serving the Church as a priest?

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.

Called By Name: If you'd like to recommend a young man for a religious vocation, here's the QR code to submit that name electronically.
For more information, contact Carl Sarrazolla (csarrazo@tivera.com) or Jordan LeMieux (jlemieux@live.com).
