Welcome! If you are new in the parish, please introduce yourself after Mass and arrange to register with us; online at www.ckparish.org or in the office during business hours. We're glad you're here!

Sacrament of Baptism: is scheduled by appointment only; parents must have been registered members of the parish for at least 4 months and must participate in Baptismal Instruction (offered on the 1st Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m. in the Bride's Room). Registration for the class is required.

Sacrament of the Sick: In the event of serious illness or medical emergency, Anointing and Eucharist may be arranged. Call the parish office during office hours, or the emergency number after hours. Contact the Visitation Ministry Office to arrange for home visits.

Celebration of Christian Funeral: After the death of a loved one, you may contact the Parish Office at your earliest convenience to arrange for a date and time for the funeral liturgy.

Sacrament of Marriage: Engaged couples requesting that their wedding take place at Christ the King must fill out an application (available on our website or in the parish office). The application must be submitted at least 4 months before the proposed wedding date to allow time for marriage preparation. The form includes information about fees.

Christian Initiation of Adults: Adults requesting information about full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church (the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) may contact the OCIA Coordinator at 371-0994.

Christian Initiation of Children (CIC): We offer a program for older children who have not been baptized or received their First Communion. Call the Religious Education Office at 946-1675 for information.

Announcements

Church Stair Repairs May Be Coming Soon:

You may have noticed that the stairs leading from our parking lot on Stevens Drive to the church are, well, crumbling.

We have been working with an architectural firm to design repair plans. We expect construction bids soon and then will negotiate schedules for performing the work. We'll keep you posted!

Volunteer Needed: to help with setting up audio/visual equipment in the Gathering Space during funeral receptions. If you can help us, please contact the parish office!

If you no longer need contribution envelopes, please call us to discontinue them.

2025 ACA: This campaign to support the work of the Bishop across the Diocese of Yakima continues.

Our parish goal this year is $280,648. As of May 31, we have received pledges of $268,454 and payments of $235,072 from 346 donors. We are making progress but remain behind in meeting our goal! Please help us!

The ACA benefits parishes in the diocese and us as well (amounts above our goal are returned to the parish).

You can donate using the envelopes in the pews, or online, or by scanning the QR code at right.

God bless you for your help!

Sunday Reflection

On Pilgrimage

Before I embarked on my trip to the National Eucharistic Congress last summer with a group from my archdiocese, we had an orientation meeting. At that meeting, the coordinator of the trip shared with us "The Five Rules of Pilgrimage."

If you're not familiar with them (I wasn't), here they are:

1. Don't complain.
2. Don't complain. (It's so important, it's listed twice.)
3. When you see a bathroom, use it.
4. When someone offers you something, receive it.
5. When someone asks you for something, give it.

It's great advice for a pilgrimage, but more than that, I think it's great advice in general. So when I read today's Gospel and I hear Jesus say essentially the same thing to his disciples as they set out to evangelize (well, minus the bathroom tip, but those weren't as much of a thing in biblical Judea), I come to an important realization.

The whole Christian life is a pilgrimage.

Too often, life falls short of my expectations. An opportunity didn't work out. A day didn't go the way I planned (like, at all). A person didn't accept me. And I ball up my fists and stomp my feet like a full-grown Veruca Salt, and I yell: I cannot work in these conditions!

And then, I imagine God, on his celestial throne, sighs and opens the Book of the Gospels (surely he keeps it handy, don't you think?) to Luke, Chapter 10. And he whispers in my heart what he said to his disciples 2,000 years ago.

Don't complain. Be open and give of yourself, and in turn, receive what comes your way, whatever it is. If it's good, rejoice. If it's not good, move on. And in the end, remember where you're headed — the place you're trying to go.

Oh, and again: don't complain.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members "go out two by two" to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Please know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in Richland, West Richland, and Benton City.

Virtus Training

Virtus Training: All staff and volunteers, especially those who work with children or vulnerable adults, are required to receive training in Safe Environment practices to prevent abuse of those whom they serve. Refresher training is required every five years.

We use Virtus as our training provider. If you have not received this training, or need a refresher, Virtus sessions have been scheduled as follows:

August 11
 August 25
 September 8
 October 6
 November 3

All of these sessions are on Zoom, on Mondays, from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. Sign up at www.virtusonline.org.

For more information, contact Sarah Moore at Sarah@CKParish.org or 509-940-1012.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

Happy Independence Day from the SEEL group! We invite you to consider participating in the Spiritual Exercises this coming season (September through May). This program is designed for lay persons. SEEL is flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn by practice many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation, and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises are powerful. People of all faiths are welcome.

This year, the Spiritual Exercises will begin its 39th year providing retreats in everyday life in our area. This past season, SEEL reached the limit of our capacity for applicants. So, if you'd like to join the Spiritual Exercises this year, please apply as soon as possible. If you have any questions or want more information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

This week (on July 11) we celebrate the feast of St. Benedict! Our small group will meet on Thursday, July 10 at noon in the parish library to anticipate this great feast. You are welcome to join us!

Join us in praying, from the Divine Office: 'God our Father, you made Saint Benedict an outstanding guide to teach us how to live in your service. Grant that by preferring your love to everything else, we may walk in the way of your commandments.'

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Nine Themes in Carmelite Spirituality, Fr. Patrick McMahon, O. Carm., www.ocarm.org

The first characteristic of Carmel is that we are Christocentric. Carmel is first and foremost about following Jesus Christ. The Rule of St. Albert outlines the purpose of our vocation. It says: "Many and varied are the ways in which our saintly predecessors laid down, how everyone, whatever one's station in life, or kind of religious observance one has chosen, should live a life of allegiance to Jesus Christ, how pure in heart, stout in conscience, we should be unswerving in the service of our Master". Carmelites live a life of allegiance to Jesus Christ whom the Carmelite rule calls: "our only Savior."

The first Carmelites came to the Holy Land drawn by the places where Our Lord had lived. They wanted to read the Gospels, live the Gospels, in that land. They wanted to see what his eyes had seen, and to set their feet in the paths where he had walked....

Carmelites are profoundly incarnational in our approach to Jesus Christ. St. Teresa tells us in The Interior Castle, book 6, chapter 7: that even at the heights of the spiritual life we cannot leave behind us our focus on the humanity of Jesus Christ.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

A Note from the Serra Club

In the Gospel, Jesus tells His disciples, as He sends them out, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few, so ask the Master of the harvest to send out laborers for His harvest." (from Luke 10: 1-12)

The Master is still calling. Will you be a laborer for Him, as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, or sister?

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
