A Note of Thanks

Dear Friends:

Thursday last, I was invited for dinner at the Knights of Columbus Hall. It was a lovely event. Even the Bishop was there!

I was told, after I arrived, that it was an 'appreciation' dinner for me. I was totally surprised and grateful to the Knights and all who attended.

You should know that for me, the great thing about being pastor here at Christ the King is you. You are such good people: caring for your elders, loving your children, supporting one another - bringing God's love into the real world of all the rest of us. The 'appreciation' goes right back at you. Bishop Francis George sent me here in 1996, and it has been a real blessing to be with you ever since. Thank you...

Fr. Tom

The Chosen: Join us for Season 5! We watch episodes and discuss them on Monday evenings (7:00 to 8:30 p.m.) in the Gathering Space.

Bible Studies will resume in September! A list of this fall's classes can be found on the parish website under "Adult Bible Study" in the Faith Formation tab; flyers are available in the foyer of the Church if you want a physical copy.

Any questions, please call or email Meggin Sanner at 541-571-8402 or ckadultre@gmail.com.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, Jesus says "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy."

A working mother of two children had to take time off from work for her daughter's cancer treatments. In taking care of her daughter she had gotten behind on both rent and utilities. She was doing what she could to get caught up including applying for rental assistance through the Housing Resource Center, but had no way to avoid a power shutoff in 8 days without help from your donations.

As utility bills start to arrive for our triple digit temperatures in July, your St. Vincent de Paul donations will bring hope ("an inexhaustible treasure in heaven") to those who call our helpline as they struggle to pay their summer utility bills.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Nine Themes in Carmelite Spirituality, Fr. Patrick McMahon, O. Carm., www.ocarm.org

The Rule of St. Albert says: "Each one of you is to stay in your own cell or nearby, pondering the Lord's law (that is the Lord's Word), day and night, and keeping watch at your prayer unless attending to some other duty".... The Psalms and, in particular, the Divine Office, is at the very heart of our Carmelite prayer Life.

Carmelite spiritual authors were totally dependent on the Word of God.... we can see how this entire Carmelite tradition has been shaped by knowledge of and an immersion into the Word of God. And so the Carmelite today must be a person who is impregnated with the Word of God. This is perhaps why Carmel has never much been given to devotional prayer. The sort of devotions that characterized some other Orders, especially those from the 18th and 19th centuries never took hold in Carmel. The prayer life of Carmel has always been simple: The Mass, the Liturgy of the Hours, and meditation on the sacred text of Scripture.

I often tell Lay Carmelite communities that I do not want to see them with shiny and new bibles. Bibles are meant to be worn out.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

PREPARES

PREPARES (Pregnancy and Parenting Support) is an initiative of the Catholic Bishops of Washington State and a program of Catholic Charities, working through volunteers in parishes like Christ the King. PREPARES offers support to families as they nurture their children from pregnancy to age five. These services are free and open to all families regardless of their faith.

In the Tri-Cities, PREPARES offers three weekly "play and learn" groups where parents and young children come together in a preschool-like environment. Relationships grow naturally as the kids learn through play and interact with each other. Moms can also pick up lightly-used clothing for their children in the PREPARES "boutique."

Is God nudging YOU to be a PREPARES volunteer, or to offer support with a donation? Do you know a pregnant mother or young family that could benefit from PREPARES?

If so, please call the parish office (509-946-1675) and leave a message for Mary Hartman. To learn more about PREPARES, visit preparesforlife.org.

A Note from the Serra Club

"Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be His own." (Response to Psalm 33)

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
