Visitation Ministry 946-1675

Welcome! If you are new in the parish, please introduce yourself after Mass and arrange to register with us; online at www.ckparish.org or in the office during business hours. We're glad you're here!

Sacrament of Baptism: is scheduled by appointment only; parents must have been registered members of the parish for at least 4 months and must participate in Baptismal Instruction (offered on the 1st Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m. in the Bride's Room). Registration for the class is required.

Sacrament of the Sick: In the event of serious illness or medical emergency, Anointing and Eucharist may be arranged. Call the parish office during office hours, or the emergency number after hours. Contact the Visitation Ministry Office to arrange for home visits.

Celebration of Christian Funeral: After the death of a loved one, you may contact the Parish Office at your earliest convenience to arrange for a date and time for the funeral liturgy.

Sacrament of Marriage: Engaged couples requesting that their wedding take place at Christ the King must fill out an application (available on our website or in the parish office). The application must be submitted at least 4 months before the proposed wedding date to allow time for marriage preparation. The form includes information about fees.

Christian Initiation of Adults: Adults requesting information about full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church (the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) may contact the OCIA Coordinator at 371-0994.

Christian Initiation of Children (CIC): We offer a program for older children who have not been baptized or received their First Communion. Call the Religious Education Office at 946-1675 for information.

Sunday Reflection

Other Plans

I don't know exactly what kind of life Mary and Joseph envisioned when they were first betrothed — back in those simple times when they were just like any other couple who had hopes, dreams and no angels telling them what to do.

Whatever their plans were, I think it's safe to say that the future God had in store for Mary and Joseph was not one either of them expected. I would imagine they both anticipated something a little quieter. A little more stable (no pun intended). A little less tumultuous.

It exhausts me simply to read through the chaos of their movements in today's Gospel. Flee to Egypt, return to Israel (but not Judea! Herod's son is there! Di-vert to Galilee! Divert!). Settle in Nazareth (let me remind you, this is all happening with a baby in tow, and without the aid of a minivan). Take a deep breath, but don't get too comfortable — now it's almost time to lose your kid in Jerusalem. Then you'll have about 20 years off before he starts raising people from the dead, and that's when things start to get really crazy.

The story of the Holy Family is the ultimate example of the phrase "God had other plans." If any four-word sentence encapsulates what we can expect from the Christian life, it is this.

I thought I was meant for that job, but God had other plans. I thought I would live in this place, but God had other plans. I thought I was supposed to become this person, but God had other plans.

We can do all the right things. We can make all the right choices. We can say, over and over again until our voice wears out, "Thy will be done." But all we can know for sure is that God has other plans.

More Announcements!

As you might expect, the parish office will be closed at on Thursday, January 1.

May you be blessed in 2026!

For all who are thinking about coming back to the Church, COMING HOME provides a supportive community where you can ask questions, discuss issues and deal with difficulties. Come learn about the program at an Information Night, Jan. 26, 2026 at 7 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room in the church.

Eight weekly sessions will be held on Mondays, starting Feb. 2 at 7 p.m. For more information, contact Meggin Sanner at 541-571-8402 or ckadultre@gmail.com.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. We hear the words: "The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him." During this New Year may we also grow in wisdom and have the favor of God upon us by remembering to take care of our suffering brothers and sisters.

The Christ the King SVdP Conference thanks all the donors who provided 125 of our SVdP families with high protein foods, grocery gift cards, as well as gift cards to purchase gifts for their children for our 2025 Christmas Basket Outreach. On behalf of our neighbors we extend our gratitude to our parish members who contributed to the Sharing Tree. A HUGE thank you to our Christ the King students and families who donated food and the 8th grade class that boxed all the food for delivery. This year's Canned Food Drive also provided us with extra boxes for our members to offer families we visited before Christmas.

Among the St. Vincent de Paul families who received a Christmas Basket were 46 single parents. Your generosity provided help to a total of 574 people including 244 adults, 117 children under the age of six, 102 children ages of seven to twelve, and 111 children thirteen to eighteen.

For more information about St. Vincent de Paul, call Bruce at (509) 627-7295 or email at bruce@svdpck.org.

YLG I Chatterbox

Did you know there is a women's group at Christ the King Church? The Young Ladies Grand Institute, over 100 members strong, is a warm, caring, and active organization for Catholic women aged 16 years and older. High School members can apply for numerous scholarships! We exist to support other women in their time of need. We are not a fundraising organization; however, we do financially support the Seminarian Fund and other local charities determined by our members (CK School, for example).

Upcoming Events: join us!

- Meeting Monday, Jan. 12 at 10:45 a.m. in the Gathering Space
- Social Monday, Jan. 20, location TBD. Contact Helen Robinson at 509-948-6555 for more information.

If you are interested in finding out more about YLGI, email presidentyli214@gmail.com or text/call Cheryl Ledesma, President at 509.943.5395.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

For more information about the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL), please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Chapters 36 and 37 of the Rule of St. Benedict address the care of the sick, elders, and children.

As in the rules for receiving visitors, St. Benedict reminds his monks that all must be truly served as Christ. One of the phrases in Chapters 35 and 36 is that the sick, the old, and the young should be 'treated with kindly consideration.'

As we contemplate the Holy Family this Sunday, may our own families follow the good example of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph (and St. Benedict!)

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962. Happy New Year!!

Carmelite Corner

Praying portions of the Divine Office

Christmas is celebrated for eight days. During this time join the Church in praying the following intercessions from the Christmas Offices:

- You were born into poverty and lowliness, look with favor on the poor and comfort them.
- You are the true vine that brings forth the fruit of life; make us branches of the vine, bearing much fruit.
- King from all eternity, you desired to be born within time and to experience the day-to-day life of men and women; share your gift of unending life with us, weak people, doomed to death.
- You came to earth to lead everyone into the kingdom, share your life of glory with those who have died.

Reflect on the following portion of Preface II of the Nativity of the Lord which Father prays at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer:

For on the feast of this awe-filled mystery, though invisible in his own divine nature, he has appeared visibly in ours; and begotten before all ages, he has begun to exist in time; so that, raising up in himself all that was cast down, he might restore unity to all creation and call straying humanity back to the heavenly Kingdom.

For additional information on praying the Divine Office, or about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Please Pray For:
